Remarks

Just when there appears to be limited opportunity to own a canal front vacant lot to satisfy the ever-increasing demand, here comes along a prime, vacant, canal front lot, which is a rear opportunity fresh on the market. This 0.59 acre lot zoning requirements - Three to four dwelling units can be allowed on this parcel, subject to development permission. Discovery Bay is a popular water front and boating community with medium to high cost housing with easy boat access to the southern shore. This lot will sell fast!!
